

PART ONE

Application for determination

Section 178, Building Act 2004 Part One is equivalent to Form 14 in the Building (Forms) Regulations 2004

Before	you	appl	y, p	lease	chec	k:
--------	-----	------	------	-------	------	----

You are legally able to do so – you must be a 'party' to the determination as defined in section 176 of the Building Act 2004 (Building Act) (refer to section D for who can be a party).
The Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment (MBIE) can determine your particular dispute – determinations can only consider whether building work complies with the Building Code, or whether a building consent authority or territorial authority (a council) made the correct decisions in a number of specified circumstances; eg about issuing a building consent or code compliance certificate (refer to section G for what MBIE can determine).
You have the correct form – This form relates to all other matters that can be determined, but not powers exercised during an emergency or designation under section 133BC (refer to section G for what matters this form is for). Complete application Form 14A for determinations that can consider decisions relating to building affected by emergency and when a designation under section 133BC of the Building Act is in place.

MBIE's website at: www.building.govt.nz/resolving-problems/ has more information on determinations and links to other options for resolving your dispute. You can also contact the Determinations team at determinations@mbie.govt.nz or 0800 242 243 for more help.
